
OUR UNIQUE PIECES

Hanspeter Wellendorff has been a passionate gemstone collector for many decades. From time to time he opens up his treasure chest and, with his master goldsmiths, selects a special stone to create an exclusive piece of jewellery.

Boasting the highest quality craftsmanship and goldsmithing, each piece of jewellery is a unique work of art.

YOU ARE MY DELIGHT necklace.

The sparkling highlight of the unique YOU ARE MY DELIGHT necklace is a fine, 7.01-carat, flawless baguette-cut diamond, which gives the necklace a simplified, modern yet timeless look.

Rectangular-shaped baguette-cut diamonds with a large table are a sign of the utmost quality. What makes them so captivating is not their brilliance so much as their clarity and purity; even the smallest impurities or inclusions in the stones can be unforgivable. The flawless baguette-cut diamond in the YOU ARE MY DELIGHT necklace is secured on just two sides by a delicate, highly polished 18-karat yellow gold setting, allowing it to shine in all its clarity. Paired with a 'Brilliance of the Sun' rope made of 18-karat yellow gold and a row of tiny gold cubes filled with mother-of-pearl Wellendorff cold enamel, the necklace impresses with its subtle elegance and wow factor.

An extension chain complete with a fine diamond allows the wearer to vary the length of the necklace and provides the perfect space for a personalised engraving.

OUR UNIQUE PIECES

SUNRISE necklace.

An open white gold setting secures the 27.05-carat sapphire from Sri Lanka in the SUNRISE necklace, allowing an incredible view of the 'floating' emerald-cut gemstone. Precision and perfection down to the hundredth of a millimetre are essential for the coloured stone to sit securely in the setting despite its impressive size. Secured only at the left and right edges by the delicately crafted and highly polished white gold setting, incident light hits the sapphire from almost all sides, causing it to shine from within in a unique way. Its bright yellow colour is reminiscent of the intense, warm hue of the rising sun and evokes the optimistic thought that a world full of new possibilities awakens in every morning light. A 'Brilliance of the Sun' rope in cool white gold, paired with 102 sparkling diamonds and 16 flawless baguette-cut diamonds, blends perfectly with the yellow sapphire, resulting in a breathtaking and eye-catching piece: the SUNRISE necklace.
